The Suits of Summer

When it comes to dressing up as the temperatures rise, there are plenty of ways to keep things cool. Here are three surefire ways to pull off the suited look this season—no matter where you're headed.

COTTON CASUAL
The perfect combination of form and function, cotton suits are stiffer than winter wools but lighter and far more breathable. Dress them up with a button-down and loafers. Or keep things casual with a T-shirt and sneakers.

Canali Trousers ($540, canali.com);
G.N.S Clothing Linen Village Crew ($88, onsclothing.com); Salvatore Ferragamo Adjustable Gancini Belt ($450, ferragamo.com); Tod's Sneakers in Leather ($775, tods.com).

YOUR GUIDE TO SPRING OFFICE STYLE

Three WARDROBE STAPLES, styled six ways. Say HELLO to your new DRESS CODE.

1 Learn to Love the Bomber

To upgrade suede, think beyond the usual tan. Go for green, gray, or chocolate brown.

Layer a vest under your jacket for some added polish.

Dress it up with tailored pants, or dress it down with sneakers. Better yet, do both.

Right: Bomber jacket ($548) by Banana Republic; shirt ($140) by Brooks Brothers; tie ($150) by Alexander Olch; trousers ($860) by Deckers; belt ($670) by Brunello Cucinelli.

DOUBLE DUTY

You can treat your bomber like a blazer. So yes, go ahead and knot that tie.

Mastering the office uniform isn't about outdressing your coworkers. It's about outdressing yourself: trying new trends and breaking old rules. This spring, you want to hit the sweet spot fashion types call "high-low." That is, the perfect mix of upscale, dressy pieces and laid-back, everyday gear. Think of it as a balanced equation between style and comfort.

It's not quite calculus, but it can take some getting used to. So we picked three workhorse pieces and styled them exactly how you want to wear them now. (Then we did it again—this stuff is seriously versatile.) In total, that's six ways to be the best-dressed guy in your workplace, whether you're in the C-suite or the coffee shop. —Nick Sullivan
